

Women and Leadership in

nipsa

Trade Unions stand at the vanguard of resisting corporate greed, rebuilding peace and democracy and establishing social, economic and gender justice. If we are to succeed, we need to transform our own organisation. Whilst progress is being made, we still need to ensure women are proportionately representative of NIPSA's membership on its decision-making bodies and structures.

To mark International Women's Day, the NIPSA Equality Committee will hold a lunchtime on-line event on Tuesday 8 March 2022 from 12.30pm to 2.00pm via zoom.

The event will provide an opportunity to headline some of the findings from our recent survey on the participation of women in NIPSA business and also to hear accounts from women leaders in NIPSA on their own experience and a chance to talk about what is needed to achieve an equal future in a post-COVID world.

Keynote Speakers Include:

- Geraldine Alexander, Assistant Secretary
- Carmel Gates, General Secretary
- Denise Crilly, NIPSA Vice-President
- Tina Creaney, Chairperson of NIPSA Equality Committee

The event is open to all members
